SENOR MONTT MAKES ADVANCES.

Secretary Tracy Declares There is No Warrant For Sensational War Rumors-Blame Put Upon English Newspapers By Officials.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.-It is authoritatively stated that no complaint has been received by the state department from the Chilian government of the conduct of Mr. Egan, and that his recall has not been considered by the president or secretary of state.

Senor Don Pedro Montt, the Chilian minister, went to the navy department and remained with Secretary Tracy for an hour. Meanwhile messengers had been sent to the department of state who reported that Secretary Blaine was with the president at the White house. The secretary of state arrived at the state department about 11:30 and a messenger promptly notified Secretary Tracy, who immediately escorted Senor Montt to Secretary Blaine's office. The two secretaries and the Chilian minister were closeted just fifteen minutes and then Senor Montt returned to the legation.

It is impossible to learn officially the object of Senor Montt's visit. There was some comment upon the call upon Secretary Tracy, as foreign ministers observant of the official proprieties usually transact any business they may have with the government to which they are accredited solely through the secretary of state. The departure from the usual practice by Senor Montt is accounted for on the ground of inex-perience in diplomatic formalities.

There is reason to believe that Senor Montt's visit had reference to the inquiry now being made at Valparaiso into the assault upon the Baltimore's sailors, and that in behalf of the Chilian government he sought to secure the testimony of some of the American sailors, as contained in the report of Capt. Schley's board of officers. As the Chilian inquiry is being conducted in secrecy and as Capt. Schley was not permitted to have any of his officers present during the examination of the arrested American sailors, the United States government felt bound to decline to permit its sailors to give further testimony. If, however, the conduct of the investigation is changed and the proceedings are made public to the world, Capt. Schley will allow testimony to be taken by the Chilian authorities aboard his vessel or will send his sailors ashore to testify in his desire to establish the truth.

Secretary Tracy said there was no warrant for sensational, warlike dispatches at this time. The United States government requested an investigation of the assault upon the Baltimore's sailors; an investigation was being made and nothing could be done until the results were known. He saw no reason for any apprehension in minds of the American public.

The secretary's view is evidently shared by the officials of the department of state, who look with amusement upon what they regard as clumsily disguised efforts of a certain element of the Engish press to foment that the safe be opened and the cash serious trouble between the United turned over. This also Freeze was States and Chili in an effort to undo compelled to do. Before doing this the advance made toward an establishment of close trade relations between which prevented him giving an alarm. the United States and South American republics by the Pan-American congress and its correlative movements.

The former are finished at the foundry in this city, and one of the two twelve-inch rifles will be tested this week at Indian Head. The other will soon be ready. The Monterey will in the opinion of the authorities be the most formidable craft in the American navy, with the possible exception of the Monitor Puritan, which is also nearing completion.

Discrimination Against Americans VALPARAISO, Nov. 3.-Chilians are constantly discriminating against Americans The same judge that investigated the attack on the American sailors investigated at the same time the stabbing of a German sailor by a Chilian sailor-a case parallel with the attack on the American sailors. A German officer was permitted to be present at the trial, while the trial of the Americans was held in secret, the judge refusing to permit an American to be present.

THE BRICEVILLE TROUBLES.

Further Particulars of the Wholesale Release of Convicts By the Tennesse

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 1.-The dissatisfaction of the miners at Briceville and Coal Creek with the law which authorizes the employment of convicts in the mines, which caused trouble a few months ago, has now taken on a very sensational and serious phase. This city was thrown into great excite ment late last night by the report that the convicts in the branch prison at Briceville had been released by the miners and their stockade burned. A man from Briceville brought word that 3,000 miners surrounded the stockade and that the guards thereupon gave up the convicts, who were given citizens' clothes. The stockade was burned. One hundred and forty-one convicts were released. No one was killed. The miners were surrounding the stockade at Caimba when this man left. They were armed with Winchesters. The guards who have been in charge of the stockade at Briceville arrived this morning and confirmed the report.

At Coal Creek the stockade belonging to the Knoxville Iron Co. was not burned, but the convicts employed were released and all are now at large. The arms of the guards were all captured. with trifling exceptions. No resistance was made and consequently there was no bloodshed.

The miners who effected the release seemed to have acted with the greatest secrecy, showing a perfect organiza-There were no outward indications of immediate action and people were beginning to believe that the matter would be left to the courts for settlement. The acts of the miners seem to be a surprise to the people in the vicinity of Briceville. Those who, in violation of the law, released the convicts repaired to the stockade soon after dark, gave their orders and the work was done. All was quiet at the nines this morning and no immediate trouble was anticipated. CONVICTS WILLING TO SURRENDER. NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 1. - Gov. Buchanan received dispatches from state authorities stationed at Briceville and Knoxville this morning confirming the reports of the releasing of convicts by miners. The latest accounts state that 163 convicts were made free at Briceville and 143 at Coal Creek. A colored convict telegraphed the governor at 11 o'clock to-day from Clinton, stating that he and 163 others were in that town and vicinity and asked what he tion warning his patients against pur-

BOLD BANK ROBBERS.

A Cashier Called Up and Compelled to Go to His Bank and Open it For Robbers.

DAKOTA CITY, Neb., Nov. 2.—A courier reached here this morning at 5 o'clock and notified Sheriff Ryan that the Homer state bank had been robbed a few hours previously by the boldest outlawry ever known in this section. The bank is the property of the Fidelity Loan & Trust Co., of Sioux City, Ia., and Herman Freeze is the cashier and only employe. He lives four blocks from the bank building and was at home alone. About 3 o'clock this morning Freeze was awakened by some one knocking on the door. When he answered the call he was met by two masked men with drawn revolvers who demanded that he go with them to the bank.

This he was forced to do. Arriving there the men demanded they gagged Freeze with a handerchief, There was in the safe $1,600 in cash, all of which was taken. The robbers then took the cashier to the door and, tying his hands behind his back, fastened him to the door lock, yo' home is, or whar yo' lib, bredren sel, the Monterey, now being built at and, bidding him good evening, disappeared in the darkness. Freeze soon freed himself and gave the alarm, but up to the present time no clew has been found.

TEN THOUSAND KILLED.

The Fatalities By the Japan Earthquake

Roll Up Frightfully.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—A private dispatch from Japan says that by the recent earthquake which shook the island of Hondo over 2,000 persons were killed. About 18,000 houses were destroyed in the province of Nagoya, on the island of Hondo, the capital of which is Nagoya, a city of 130,000 inhabitants. In addition 5,000 houses were destroyed and 5,000 persons killed by the earthquake at Gifu. The towns of Kano and Kasamatu are also reported to have been destroyed, with fifty miles of railroad. It is presumed that the fire, which started among the wrecked buildings at Nagoya, as already cabled, may have had a great deal to do with the great loss of life which is announced by the private message mentioned. As loss of life at Kano and at Kasamatsu is not mentioned, and as these towns are said to have been destroyed, it is estimated here that the total loss of life may eventually be shown to be over 10,000.

CHINESE PATENT MEDICINES. Wong Chin Foo Throws Light Upon a

The Americans are not the only peo ple who are famous in the world for patent medicines. The Chinese have patent medicines, too, and they have millionaire patent medicine makers. The most famous of these fortunate manufacturers have been enjoying the celebrated sentimentalities of famous Col. Sellers, in fact. Just think of it, a medicine that is made use of in every family in China at half an ounce of silver a box, which is equal to seventy-five cents in American money. Seventy-five cents a box, or a clear profit of seventy cents on each box, bought annually by over seventy-five million families, or fifty-two million dollars a year profits, and this has been going on from the great Soong dynasty to the present day, or nine hundred and twenty-nine years prosperity. Where is Col. Sellers now? Here are some of the leading patent medicines of the empire of China that are considered the standard cures for the various ailments of the human body: The famous "Ning Shin Yo Wan, made by Chin Lee Chop, is a small black pill, like shot, and is said to be a sort of tonic as well as blood purifier, which all classes have much faith in. An entire box weighs about an ounce. The next in importance is the "Pop Fa Yo," by Yip Man Troong, or camphorated oil with some other mixture. said to be a sure cure for headache; it comes in bottles of about two inches high by half an inch square, is sold at ten cents a bottle, and is about four hundred years old. Its proprietors are also millionaires. These are composed of the descendants of the founder, more than a hundred families of them all told, and every one of them is wealthy, while a few of them are millionaires.

Like the "Ning Shin Yo," it is in use almost constantly in every family, many families using a bottle each week. The "Way Sung Due," or "Come to Life Wine," is made by Jhoo Chung Yuen, of Canton, and is only about fifty years old. This is a medicated wine in quart bottles and is sold at seventy-five cents a bottle in New York and much cheaper in China. The proprietor is also a millionaire. But like all other paying business in modern times, all over the world competitors sprung up who claimed to manufacture an equally good brand. This has been the means of reducing his profits recently, so that he was compelled to issue a proclamachasing counterfeits. There is no law against infringement on patents in
